4. Columbia Lakes Development

Mr. Smith informed the Council that Mr. Paul Frierdich has stated he is willing to mow the City's property within the Columbia Lakes development. Mr. Smith also informed the Council that Mr. Paul Frierdich has requested to use asphalt versus concrete for the roadway in the new development and also stated the homes will be either 3-sides brick or 4-sides brick. Alderman Holtkamp expressed concern about the grass not being cut resulting in an issue the City will need to address. Mayor Hutchinson stated should that occur, the City could revoke the development's use of City property as common area. Alderman Huch stated he wants everything in writing to protect the City from any future issues. Alderman Huch also stated given the grade of the roadway, it needs to be concrete. Mayor Hutchinson stated the City needs elevations for the development. After a discussion by the Council, it was agreed to request additional information from Mr. Frierdich, including elevations, and to require concrete streets.
